CHOREOGRAPHIC DIFFICULTY

The ability to generate patter choreography in which the difficulty factor is exactly suited to the experience, abilities and tastes of his dancers has become one of the most important skills of a modern square dance caller. These days a caller may call for a beginners class on one night, a Mainstream club on another, and a high-flying-anything-goes Advanced workshop on the next. This means that his professional future may often depend on his ability to correctly assess the skills and preferences of his dancers on any given night and upon his ability to instantly provide those dancers with a patter program that combines smooth-flowing and dance-like choreography with just the right amount of intellectual challenge. These are programming decisions and they are rarely made easily.

The ability to make accurate programming decisions depends on many things. It depends on a callers understanding of the mechanics of body flow; it depends on his understanding of comfortable timing; it depends on his ability to make the action of the dance fit the phrase of the music; and it also depends, in no small measure, on his complete understanding of what makes one series of calls seem harder than another.

Dancers' perception of choreographic difficulty is directly related to the nature of the body's physical reflexes, and to the nature (and limits) of human memory. When dancers are unable to respond reflexively (instantly and automatically), they feel stressful and uneasy and this is when they perceive their caller's choreography to be hard. In such cases, the dancers either "make it" or they don't....and, in either event, one of three end results will usually occur: (1) the dancers complete the sequence successfully and because it was indeed difficult, they considered it fun to dance. Such dancers enjoy a degree of stress if it also accompanies a successful end result; (2) the dancers complete the sequence successfully but found that it was too difficult to be enjoyable. In such cases, the dancers' stress was not worth the fun of succeeding; (3) the dancers do not complete the sequence successfully and the square breaks down. They not only see such choreography as hard, they see it as impossible and that kind of choreography is never pleasant or fun to dance.

CHOREOGRAFISCHE SCHWIERIGKEITEN

Die Faeigkeit, Patter-Choreografien zu erstellen, in welchen der Schwierigkeitsgrad genau den Erfahrungen, Faeigkeiten und dem Geschmack seiner Taenzer angespasst ist, ist eine der wichtigsten Faeigkeiten eines modernen Square Dance Callers. Heutzutage callt ein Caller einen Abend fuer eine Anfaengerklasse, fuer einen Mainstream-Club an einem anderen, und einen "ueberdurschnittlichen Alles-geht" advanced Workshop an dem naechsten. Dies bedeutet, dass seine professionelle Zukunft oftmals von seiner Faeigkeit abhaengt, die Geschicklichkeit und Vorlieben seiner Taenzer jeden Abend erneut gut abzuschaeten, und davon, diese Taenzer sofort mit einem Patter-Programm zu versorgen, welches fluessiges Tanzen und tanzbare Choreografien verbindet, mit dem richtigen "Schuss" intellektueller Herausforderung. Dieses sind "Ablauf"-Entscheidungen, die selten einfach sind.

Die Faeigkeit exakte Programm Entscheidungen zu treffen haengt von vielen Dingen ab. Es haengt davon ab, ob ein Caller die Mechanismen des Body-Flow versteht, ob er ein Verstaendnis fuer gutes (bequemes) Timing hat, ob er die Figuren der Musik anpassen kann; und es haengt vor allen Dingen auch von seinem Verstaendnis ab, wie man eine Figuren-Serie schwieriger "erscheinen" laesst als eine andere.

Das Einfuehlungsvermoegen der Taenzer in choreografische Schwierigkeiten steht in direktem Zusammenhang zu den natuerlichen Koerperreflexen und der Natur (und den Grenzen) des menschlichen Gedaechtnisses. Wenn die Taenzer nicht in der Lage sind, reflexartig (sofort und automatisch) zu reagieren, fuehlen sie sich gestresst und unbehaglich; dann glauben sie, die Choreografie des Callers sie schwer. In diesen Faellen tanzen sie's, oder sie tanzen es nicht; in jedem Fall wird eines von drei moeglichen Resultanten herauskommen: (1) die Taenzer vollenden die Figurenfolge erfolgreich; weil es wirklich anspruchsvoll war, hatten sie Spass beim Tanzen. Diese Taenzer moegen einen gewissen Grad an Stress, wenn er von einem erfolgreichen Abschluss beleitet wird; (2) die Taenzer vollenden die Figurenfolge erfolgreich; aber fanden es zu schwer, um daran Spass zu haben. In diesem Fall ist der Stress groesser als der Spass am Tanzen; (3) die Taenzer vollenden die Figurenfolgenicht erfolgreich und der Square brach zusammen. Sie betrachten nicht nur die Choreografie als schwer, sie halten sie fuer nicht ausfuehrbar; diese Art der Choreografie wird niemals mit Vergnuegen zu tanzen sein.

SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT:

Back in May of last year, I reported the results of a meeting of the Application Review Sub-Committee in Dallas at the CALLERLAB Convention, that took a “straw” vote on four different issues. I inadvertently left the word “straw” off my CALLERLAB Wrap-Up report, and sincerely apologize to my friend, and Chairman of the Application Review Sub-Committee, Jon Jones..., sorry Jon, this was not intentional by any means.

The results of the entire Committee’s voting is now public, and is displayed here for your review.

1. Is it proper to call “Zoom” from a 1/4 Tag Formation?

95% of the Committee members voted “NO”

2. Would the call “Chain Down The Line 3/4” be an extension of “Chain Down The Line” from a 1/4 Tag Formation with the girls in the center? The same for “T” bone lines and Diamonds?

90% of the Committee members voted “NO”

3. Is it proper to call “Sweep 1/4” after Recycle?

85% of the Committee members voted “YES”

4. Is it proper to call “Spin Chain Thru” from an Alamo Ring?

80% of the Committee members voted “NO”

It is also noted that 100% of the Committee members voted on these four issues, which speaks very highly for this Committee. It is hoped that through these, and future reviews by this committee, that we will curtail the misuse of calls and/or combinations of calls.

Im Mai letzten Jahres habe ich ueber die Ergebnisse des “Application Review Sub-Committee” auf der CALLERLAB Convention in Dallas berichtet, wo eine “Probe”-Abstimmung zu vier verschiedenen Eingaben Stattfand. Ich habe versehentlich das Word “Probe” in meinem CALLERLAB-Bericht weggelassen. Ich entschuldige mich bei meinem Freund und Vorsitzenden des “Application Review Sub-Committee” Jon Jones...sorry Jon, das war keine Absicht.

Die Ergebnisse des gesamten Ausschusses sind jetzt veroeffentlicht, hier sind sie nochmals wiederholt.

1. Ist es in Ordnung, “Zoom” aus einer 1/4 Tag Formation zu callen?
95% der Ausschuss-Mitglieder stimmten “NEIN”.
2. Ist der Call “Chain Down The Line 3/4” eine Erweiterung von “Chain Down The Line” aus einer 1/4 Tag Formation mit den Maedchen in der Mitte”? Gilt das gleiche fuer “T-Bone Lines” und “Diamonds”?
90% der Ausschuss Mitglieder stimmten “NEIN”.
3. Ist es in Ordnung nach Recycle “Sweep 1/4” zu callen?
85% der Ausschuss-Mitglieder Stimmten “JA”.
4. Ist es in Ordnung “Spin Chain Thru” aus einem Alamo-Ring zu callen?
80% der Ausschuss-Mitglieder Stimmten “NEIN”.

Es sollte auch erwähnt werden, dass 100% der Ausschuss-Mitglieder ueber die Fragen abgestimmt haben, was sehr fuer den Ausschuss spricht. Wir hoffen, dass durch diese und kuenftige Ueberarbeitungen durch diesen Ausschuss die falsche Verwendung von Calls und Call-Kombinationen verringert wird.

Hope your classes are doing alright, ours are progressing very well. If you are sending your dancers to a dance with “Students Welcome” on the flyer, think twice...if the students don’t know the exact level, they don’t know what to expect..same for the callers, if they don’t know the exact level, it will be difficult for them to adequately prepare for a good dance. This is too risky when we are dealing with the future of the activity in my eyes.

THE WAY THINGS WERE IN THE MID-50'S

Here is a rather broad profile of the square dance activity as it shaped up in the early 1950's. These were exciting times. Square dancing was the "in-thing" and it had reached "fad" proportions in many communities where it was being introduced.

The square dance club was recognized as the hub of the activity and it had become the goal of new dancers to become a part of a club organization. This affiliation for a majority of dancers was the center and circumference of the activity. Many at first were aware of no other square dancing than that in which they were personally involved. Sharing responsibilities, putting into practice those things their caller-leaders had taught them in class and doing things together with club members was an important part of the whole, and it was more than a mere obligation. It included the thrill of expectancy that encouraged the dancers not only to attend the dances but to support the club and the home club caller.

Clubs at this time were very much tied in to their club caller (and also the other way around). The home club caller provided the continuity and leveling influence that the club depended upon. Some clubs were caller run. Many were run by the dancers who looked toward their regular caller as a source of information for, as dancer-leaders would change on a regular basis, the club caller could be depended upon to help retain club traditions and stability.

The caller and the caller's partner, because they were very much a part of the continuing club performance, were in a position to maintain ongoing dance-education, and because they knew the club and its members, they also knew when an additional "lift" was needed, when extra time had to be devoted to certain basics. Because of this insight, the caller-leaders working closely with the dancer leadership in the club provided a form of insurance that kept the club intact with a minimum of frustration or embarrassment, discouraging cliques and set-up squares.

At this stage of the game, the Basic and extended Basic programs covered 75 movements--and this seemed to be the Mainstream of the time--the entire teaching period could be comfortably covered with the dancers being assured of learning what had been taught, in 30 lessons. This meant that the caller/teacher would not only be covering the basics, but also simple rounds and mixers, occasionally including a contra or quadrille. The result was that the dancer, having completed a course of lessons, was an all around individual who not only accepted, enjoyed what had been learned in class.

SO WAR'S - IN DER MITTE DER 50IGER JAHRE

Hier ein großes Profil des Square Dance, wie er in den 50igern war.

Es waren aufregende Zeiten. Square Dance war "IN" und hatte in den Städten, wo er vorgestellt wurde, enorme Ausmaße angenommen.

Ein Square Dance Club wurde als Mittelpunkt der Gesellschaft angesehen, und es war das erklärte Ziel aller neuen Tänzer, in den Club aufgenommen zu werden. Die Mitgliedschaft war für die Mehrzahl der Tänzer der Dreh-und Angelpunkt dieser Aktivität. Viele wußten anfangs nicht, daß es außer ihrem eigenen Club auch noch andere gab. Verantwortung teilen. Dinge, die ihnen ihr Caller während der Klasse beigebracht hatte, zusammen mit anderen Clubmitglieder in die Praxis umzusetzen war ein wichtiger Teil des ganzen, und es war mehr als nur eine Verpflichtung. Es war eine Vorfreude, die Tänzer dazu bewog, nicht nur die Veranstaltungen zu besuchen, sondern auch den Club und den eigenen Caller zu unterstützen.

Ein Club zu dieser Zeit war sehr mit seinem Caller verbunden (und ebenso umgekehrt). Der Club-Caller sorgte für den Fortschritt und die Höhe des Levels, auf den der Club angewiesen war. Einige Clubs "gehörten" dem Caller. Viele wurden von den Tänzern unterhalten, die ihren Caller als Informationsquelle ansahen, denn, da der Vorstand ständig wechselte, verließ man sich auf den Club-Caller, der half, die Club-Tradition und Stabilität zu erhalten.

Weil der Caller und sein Partner sehr in die ständige Clubpräsentation eingebunden waren, konnten sie die Tanzausbildung ständig weiterzuführen, und da sie den Club und seine Mitglieder kannten, wußten sie auch, wenn zusätzliche Hilfe benötigt wurde, wenn bestimmten Basics Extra Zeit gewidmet werden mußte. Aufgrund dessen arbeiteten die Caller eng mit den Vertretern der Tänzer zusammen; dies gab ein Gefühl der Sicherheit, was den Club mit einem Minimum an Frustrationen oder Verlegenheiten, störenden Gruppen und Set-Squares zusammenhielt.

In diesem Stadium umfaßten das Basic- und Extended Basic-Programm 75 Figuren - und dies schien das Mainstream dieser Zeit zu sein - man konnte das gesamte Pensum den Tänzern leicht in 30 Lektionen beibringen. Dies hieß aber auch, daß der Caller nicht nur die Basics lehrte, sondern darüber hinaus noch leichte Rounds und Mixers, gelegentlich sogar einen Contra oder eine Quadrille. Das Ergebnis waren Tänzer, die nicht nur das Lehrprogramm beherrschten, sondern "All-Rounder" waren, die den Lehrstoff auch mit Spaß umsetzten.

MENTAL IMAGE CALLING

At one time, and not so long ago at that, there was one system of calling and that was pure and simple memory work. The choreography of the pre-contemporary forms of calling was usually all written out and the caller had merely to memorize and he had it made. In recent years, we have seen a number of systems surface. While they don't necessarily follow the same guidelines, they do have one thing in common--the creative ability of the caller. Here is one of the popular theories--that form of the art known as Mental Image.

Mental Image Calling is the art of being able to follow, in your mind's eye, the actions of certain key people within the square, while you call. This method enables the caller to use basic calls while the dancers move through enjoyable dance patterns which are not preplanned and which never have to be repeated exactly. You accomplish this by learning one basic at a time - just as dancers learn them. The most key person is the number one man and you will follow him as you call, keeping track of who his partner is at any given time and which of the other couples he is working with. Is he working in the center of the set with the number three man or is he working with either the number four man or number two man on their side of the square? Who does he have as a temporary partner and who does the other man he is working with have as a partner? Last, you must know what effect the next call you are going to give will have upon the square. It is not easy, yet it is not difficult. It simply requires practice and a knowledge of certain ground rules. No method calling is completely freewheeling. Your brain reacts much the same as a computer or electronic device that controls a servo-mechanism. You must have established an input for it to function and that input is established through practice.

In practice, you must first have a mental picture of the make-up of one half of the square “before” you give an appropriate call. Second, you must be able to switch your mental picture to the subsequent make-up of one half of the square “after” the call is given. This second step, or forming mental picture, will become almost instantaneous because it can be formed in your mind when the call is given. It is there long before the dancers actually arrive at that formation and position combination. This switching in the mind’s eye to a completed setup is called “formation awareness”. This new mental picture remains while your mind is engaged in thinking about the calls you know to be appropriate from that formation and position. Other systems of calling, including Modular and Sight, also depend on formation awareness in their use. It therefore becomes doubly important to develop this capability as a vital ingredient of other systems of calling.

MENTAL IMAGE CALLING

Es gab eine Zeit, und noch nicht mal lange her, da gab es ein System das ganz einfach eine auswendig lernen, Arbeit war. Die Choreography wurde normaleweise niedergeschrieben und der Caller mußte sie auswendig lernen. In den letzten Jahren haben wir eine ganze Reihe von gut arbeitenden Systeme gesehen. Während sie nicht und bedingt alle der gleichen Richtlinie folgen, haben sie doch eins gemeinsam die creative möglichkeiten für den Caller. Hier ist eine beliebte Form des callens-die Form bekannt als “Mental Image”.

Mental Image calling ist ein Form, gedankendlich die Aktionen der Schlüssel Person im Square zu folgen, während du callst. Diese Methode ermöglicht es dem Caller, basic Calls in eine für die Tänzer angenehmen Figurenfolge, anzuwenden die weder voraus geplant noch jemals wieder genau so wiederholt werden muss. Dieses erreichst du, wenn du eine basic Figur nach der anderen lernst-genau wie Tänzer. Die wichtigste Schlüssel Person ist Nummer eins Mann, beobachte ihn während Callens, und achte genau darauf wer seine Partnerin ist und mit welchem der anderen Paare er gerade tanzt. Tanzt er in der Mitte mit Mann drei, oder mit Mann vier oder Mann zwei auf ihren Seiten vom Square? Wer ist gerade seine Partnerin und wer ist die Partnerin von dem Mann mit dem er gerade tanzt? Als letztes muss du wissen welche Wirkung der nächste Call , den du gibst im Square hat. Es ist nicht ganz einfach, aber es ist auch nicht schwer. Es braucht nur übung, und das bestimmte Wissen der Grundregeln. Keine der Methoden des callens geht von selbst. Dein Gehirn reagiert meistens wie ein Computer oder ein Elektronisches Gerät das ein Servo-mechanismus steuert. Du musst die Befehle erst eingeben damit er funktioniert und diese Eingaben ergeben sich durch üben und Erfahrung.

Beim üben, musst du der erst ein Mentales Bild von der Hälfte des Squares machen "bevor" du einen geeigneten Call gibst. Zweitens, musst du dein Mentales Bild auf die sich zu ergebenen Position "nach" dem Call schalten können. Dieser zweite Schritt oder formen des Mentalen Bildes wird fast unverzüglich ausgeführt, da er zugleich in deinem Gedächtnis geformt wird wenn du den Call gibst. Er entsteht lange bevor die Tänzer die Endposition erreicht. Dieses gedankliche Umschalten auf die ausgeführten Schrittfolge wird "Formation Awareness" genannt. Dieses Mentale Bild bleibt während dein Gedächtnis darüber nachdenkt welcher Call von dieser Formation oder Position geeignet ist. Auch andere Arten des Callings "Modular und Sight" sind an die "Formation Awareness" gebunden. Deshalb ist es doppelt so wichtig diese Fähigkeit als notwendige Zutat auch für andere Arten des Callings zu entwickeln.

CALLERLAB WRAP-UP:

The recent CALLERLAB convention in Las Vegas is now history. We had the largest attended convention in many years, the convention was very positive and up-beat. The items of interest that will affect us are as follows.

In May of last year, a meeting of several square dance organizations was held in Cleveland, Ohio, under the name of the National Council of Square Dance Organizations (NCSDO), CALLERLAB was represented at this meeting. During this meeting, a resolution was passed to expand the definition of "proper" square dance attire. This resolution identified "Traditional" attire as normal western long sleeved shirts, dress pants or nice dress jeans and shoes for the men and square dance dresses with petticoats or the long prarie style skirts or dresses and shoes for ladies. "Proper" square dance attire is now defined as dress slacks and dress jeans for both men and women, and short sleeved shirts for men. A third category called "Casual" square dance attire was designated for the traveler who needs the valuable luggage space, or for areas where the weather conditions would make it inconvenient for Traditional or Proper attire to be worn. These dances should be appropriately advertised as having "Casual" attire, along with, perhaps, workshop sessions in the afternoon or morning sessions of multiple day events.

The CALLERLAB Board Of Governors passed a position paper on this subject and presented it to the membership for approval at the April 19, 2000 meeting. The membership voted on the position paper only, not for or against the proposal from the NCSDO.....this vote was passed.

Another vote on the revised Board of Governors Program Policy statement was taken and passed. The only change was a "cosmetic" change that eliminated

the Basic Program from the list of CALLERLAB dance programs. The reason for this was simple. The Basic program was never a stand alone program...it was always under the "Mainstream Committee" for administration. Areas where the old Basic program was in use may continue to advertise the level as MS 1-53, signifying the first 53 movements would be used. There has never been a Basic Committee to tend to the Basic program in the past, it was always the MS Committee that administered this. CALLERLAB fully endorses the MS program as the entry level into the activity.

CALLERLAB ZUSAMMENFASSUNG

Der kürzlich in La Vegas abgehaltene CALLERLAB Kongreß ist bereits Geschichte. Seit Jahren war es, gemessen an Teilnehmern, der größte Kongreß. Er war sehr positiv und lebhaft.

Unter dem Namen National Council of Square Dance Organizations (NCSDO) fand letztes Jahr im Mai ein Treffen verschiedener Square Dance Organisationen und des CALLERLAB in Cleveland, Ohio statt. Während dieses Treffens wurde der Beschuß gefaßt, den Begriff der "proper" (korrekten) Square Dance Kleidung zu erweitern. Dieser Beschuß definiert "traditional" (traditionelle) Kleidung, bestehend aus: langärmeligem Hemd und Stoffhose bzw. Gute Jeans und Schuhe für die Herren und Square Dance Kleider mit Petticoats oder Westernröcke für die Damen. "Proper" (korrekte) Square Dance Kleidung ist nun definiert mit Stoffhosen oder ordentliche Jeans für beide, Männer und Frauen, mit kurzärmeligem Hemd für die Männer. Die dritte Kategorie, genannt "casual" (legere oder Freizeit) Square Dance Kleidung, wurde kreiert für die Reisenden, die leichtes, platzsparendes Gepäck mit sich führen. Oder auch Gebiete (klimatisch), wo traditionelle oder korrekte Square Dance Kleidung sehr unbequem wäre. Derartige Veranstaltungen sollten auf den Einladungen klar als "casual" gekleidet ausgewiesen werden, möglicherweise mit dem Hinweis auf Workshops am Nachmittag oder vormittags mit diversen Tagesprogrammen. Das CALLERLAB Board Of Governors (Vorstand) verfaßte eine Stellungnahme zu diesem Thema und legte sie den Mitgliedern zur Abstimmung am 19. April 2000 vor. Die Mitglieder haben nur über diesen Punkt abgestimmt, weder für noch gegen den Vorschlag der NCSDO gestimmt..... Diese abstimmung wurde verschoben.

Eine andere Abstimmung von einer überarbeiteten Regellung wurde vorgenommen und angenommen. Die einzige Änderung war eine "kosmetische" Änderung, welche das Basic Programm von der Liste der CALLERLAB Tanzprogramme strich. Der Grund dafür war einfach Das Basic Programm alleine war als solches nie ein selbständiges.....Es war immer dem Mainstream Komitee untergeordnet. Gebiete, in denen das alte Basic Programm angewendet wurde, dürfen weiterhin - unter Angabe von MS 1-53 Level werben. Klar herausgestellt, das die ersten 53 Figuren getanzt werden. Es hat in der Vergangenheit nie ein Basic Komitee zur Verwaltung eines Basic Programms existiert, es war immer das MS Komitee. CALLERLAB stuft das MS Programm als Einstiegslevel in die Aktivitäten ein.

HISTORY: THE BIRTH OF TEACUP CHAIN--BY LES GOTCHER

Here is that true story. Back in 1947, I was calling a State Festival in Austin, Texas, (my home State) and a group at the Festival put on an exhibition. I happened to be sitting in the balcony watching when this group did what was, to me, one of the greatest sets of figures that I had ever seen in square dancing. A lady by the name of Pat Morrison Lewkowicz had worked this figure out and taught it to an Austin square dance club, the group that was performing.

After the session was over I asked to see this lady and after complimenting her on working out something so beautiful, asked if I could have a copy of the call she had used. She said, "Sure, but what do you want with it? You can't possibly teach it to the average square dancer unless you take hours doing it. This is strictly an exhibition number." I told her that I would like to have it anyway, and she gave me her copy of the call.

We talked for quite a while and I asked her how she came up with the name Teacup Chain. She said she started working on it one night after the club dance, where she had come on to the idea for a chain figure. She told me that she had had two sets of dishes of different colors. She used four cups of one color for the ladies and four of the other color for the gents and in this way she would keep them straight. She said that she had turned the cups upside down and on the bottom of the cups she used a marking pencil and put the number One on one pair, The number Two on another pair, etc.

The sun was beginning to rise and was just starting to shine in her dining room window when she finished the figure and had written out the pattern exactly as the dancers were to do it. She just hoped she would be able to teach it to them. After she worked out the choreography and knew that it would work she looked around and noticed the cups she had used and decided that she would call it the "Teacup Chain".

Historisches: Die Geburt Des "TEACUP CHAIN"--by Les Gotcher

Hier ist die wahre Geschichte: Es war im Jahre 1947, als ich bei einem Landes-Festival in Austin, Texas (meinem Heimatstaat), callte. Eine Gruppe dieses Festivals tanzte einen Schautanz. Während ich diese Gruppe vom Balkon aus beobachtete, sah ich, wie die schönste Square Dance Figur-die ich je gesehen hatte-, vorgeführt wurde. Eine Dame namens Pat Morrison Lewkowicz hatte diese Figur ausgearbeitet und mit derselben Gruppe, die sie jetzt vorführte, im Club in Austin eingeübt.

Nachdem die Vorführung beendet war, frage ich nach der Dame und machte ihr Komplimente für die Choreographie dieser wunderschönen Tanzfigur. Ich hat sie um eine Kopie derselben. Sie antwortete : "Sicher, aber was willst du damit? Du kannst sie unmöglich einem Durchschnitts-Square Dancer beibringen; ausser, du verwendest viele Stunden, sie zu lehren. Es ist eine reine Schautanz-Figur." Ich sagte, dass ich sie trotzdem gerne haben würde und bekam eine Kopie.

Wir unterhielten uns eine ganze Weile und ich fragte sie, wie sie auf "Teacup Chain gekommen war. Sie sagte, dass die Idee für eine neue Chain-Figur nach einem Clubabend entstand. Sie besass Geschirr in zwei unterschiedlichen Farben. Sie benutzte vier Tassen einer Farbe für die Damen und vier der anderen Farbe für die Herren. Die Unterseite der Tassen wurde nach oben gedreht und mit Zahlen für Paar 1,2 usw. versehen. Auf diese Weise entstand keine Verwirrung.

Als bei Sonnenaufgang die ersten Strahlen durch ihr Esszimmerfenster schienen, hatte sie die Figur definiert und notiert, um getanzt werden zu können. Sie hoffte nur, das es auch gelingen würde, sie zu lehren. Nachdem die Figur ausgearbeitet war und sie wusste, dass es so funktioniert, sah sie sich im Zimmer um und während sie auf die Tassen schaute beschloss sie, diese Figur "Teacup Chain" zu nennen.

THE MAD RUSH TO PLUS

This past weekend I was calling a "Special" Dance in Munich and had the opportunity to talk with a long time friend in Munich. He indicated to me that he is seeing a trend developing in Germany that needs to be addressed. If he is correct, if this trend is developing, then he is correct.....it will definitely need addressing, before it is too late. I struggled with this, and realized that he was correct....I can see the beginning of what is plaguing the activity happening here.

One of the problems that is plaguing the activity in some parts of the world is that callers are becoming lazier and lazier. I saw this beginning over 28 years ago in America when both husband and wife were both working, there was little time to dedicate to studying choreography....it became more and more difficult to "prepare" for a club evening. It became "easier" for us to take a movement from the "Plus" program and use it than it was to learn how to do something "different" with a Mainstream figure. I might add that in the beginning I was as guilty as anybody else, however I saw the pitfalls and reversed my trend, quickly.

This eventually led to areas being "forced" to accept "soft plus" as their entry level, which is leading to the rapid demise of the activity in the USA. Folks, this trend MUST be reversed, if not, we are going to eventually see the activity die over here as well. Take it from one who has "been there" and "done that", and even has the "tee shirt" to prove it, it is beginning to happen here as well, and HAS to be reversed. How can we do this?

It is difficult if we work for a MS club and are "pressured" into calling a "plus tip" for those club members who are dancing plus elsewhere. Chances are, these members are merely asking for the opportunity to "show-off" the fact that they know more than the regular members. I have always managed to decline this invitation, and stand on the morals that my MS club will continue to be such. I will strive to make them the best dancing MS dancers, by expanding their knowledge of the MS figures that they already know.

Mark my word, if this trend continues for the next 10 years, we will see the activity eventually begin to die like it is in America. I really think we callers must stand strong and prove that we are truly the leaders in the activity....don't let this slip away, we should accept the leadership role, exercise your authority sparingly, and don't let anyone take it away from you.

DAS "VERRÜCKTE" STREBEN NACH PLUS

Vergangenes Wochenende habe ich auf einem Special in München gecallt und hatte die Gelegenheit, mich mit einem alten Freund zu unterhalten. Er wies mich darauf hin, dass sich in Deutschland ein Trend entwickelt, über den man sich unterhalten sollte. Falls es stimmt, und sich dieser Trend entwickelt, dann hat er recht...es muss darüber gesprochen werden, bevor es zu spät ist. Ich habe mich dagegen gesträubt, musste aber dann erkennen, dass er recht hat...ich sehe die Anfänger von etwas, das dem Square Dance hier bei uns schadet.

Eines dieser Probleme, die unseren Sport stören, sind Caller die immer "fauler" und bequemer werden. Ich habe dies bereits vor 28 Jahren in Amerika gesehen, wenn beide Ehepartner arbeiteten, bleib nur noch wenig Zeit, Choreografien zu studieren...es wurde immer schwieriger, sich für einen Clubabend vorzubereiten. Es war bequemer, einfach eine Figur aus dem PLUS-Programm zu benutzen, als zu lernen, wie man mit einer MAINSTREAM-Figur etwas Neues machen kann. Ich muss hinzufügen, dass ich anfangs genauso schuldig war wie alle anderen, aber ich habe die Stolpersteine gesehen, und es dann sofort geändert.

Dieser Trend hat dazu geführt, dass man in manchen Gegenden "gezwungen" war, "Soft Plus" als Einstiegslevel zu akzeptieren, was einen rapiden Rückgang der Aktivität in USA zur Folge hatte. Leute, dieser Trend MUSS umgekehrt werden; wenn nicht, dann sehen wir unseren Sport hier genauso "sterben". Lasst es euch von einem sagen, der da war, es getan hat und es auch beweisen kann, es fängt hier genauso an, und es MUSS wieder geändert werden. Wie können wir dies bewerkstelligen?

Es ist schwierig, wenn wir für einen MS-Club callen und "gezwungen" werden, für die, die es beherrschen, einen PLUS-Tip zu callen. Es könnte sein, dass diese Tänzer nur eine Gelegenheit suchen, den anderen Clubmitgliedern zu beweisen, dass sie mehr "drauf haben" als der Rest. Ich habe es immer geschafft, diese Aufforderung zu umgehen, und kann sagen, dass mein MS-Club auch einer bleiben wird. Ich werde mir grosser Mühe geben, meine Clubmitglieder zu den besten MS-Tänzer zu machen, indem ich ihr Wissen über die MS-Figuren noch erweitere.

Denkt an meine Worte, wenn dieser Trend in den nächsten 10 Jahren so weitergeht, werden wir beobachten, wie unsere Aktivität - wie in Amerika - langsam kaputt geht. Ich bin der Überzeugung, dass wir Caller beweisen müssen, wirkliche Vorbilder für die Aktivität zu sein vergesst dies nicht; wir sollten die Vorbildfunktion akzeptieren, übt eure "Autorität" untereinander, und lasst sie euch von niemandem nehmen.

Now is the time to start the ball rolling for the upcoming class season.....plan ahead and don't wait for time to catch up to you. Good luck on your new class season....hope your classes are bigger and better than they have ever been in the past. Take care with those that just graduated...we need to treat them with tender loving care right now, this is the most critical time in the newer graduates life, don't run them off...treat them gently during this time. Take care, see you next month.

VIEWPOINT: THE CLUB CALLER
MAINSTREAM: EXTEND AND CROSS RUN
PLUS: EXPLODE AND ANYTHING

THE CLUB CALLER:

Continuity is the name of the game in square dancing. Whether calling for a club or class, a single caller knows what the members of the group can do well and just what their weaknesses may be. By keeping careful records, he is able to intelligently build his program, avoid repetition where not needed and drill on those trouble spots where repetition will be a help.

By keeping a record of his programs, he avoids duplicating what he called the previous week but, by the same token, he can bring back a singing call or a gimmick figure that he may not have used for some time.

The dancer, his club and his caller make an all-important "team". As a member of a club, the regular caller becomes familiar with the club members as individuals, and they with him. The all-important element of communications is made much simpler when the club deals with the same caller on a continuing basis. By being a regular part of the club, the caller is able to retain certain traditions, anticipate anniversary parties and “specials” of particular significance to this group of dancers.

Quite frequently a regular club caller will also be the caller/teacher for beginner classes sponsored by the club. When a class graduates, the caller is able to adjust the club’s dancing to a point where it is possible for the new dancers to keep up with the club, while at the same time making it interesting to the veteran dancers in the group. Because of this, dropouts between class and club are held to a minimum.

From the standpoint of the class itself, the caller who is solely responsible for the group can size up his dancers/students right from the beginning, determining where particular personal assistance is needed and then do something about it. If the club furnishes “angles”, or helpers, the regular caller is in a good position to work with these people in achieving the greatest assistance for the newcomers.

VORTEILE EINES “FESTEN” CLUB-CALLERS:

Beständigkeit ist das Motto von Square Dance. Ob man für einen Club oder eine Klasse callt, als “fester” Club-Caller weiss man, was die Mitglieder der Gruppe gut können und wo ihre Schwachstellen sind. Wenn man, sorgfältig Buch führt, kann man sein Programm sinnvoll aufbauen, Wiederholungen vermeiden, und mehr Wert auf Problempunkte legen durch verstärktes Üben.

Durch das Protokolieren der Programme kann er vermeiden, dasselbe wie letzte Woche zu callen, er kann aber auch feststellen, war er schon länger nicht mehr gemacht hat, und einen Singing Calls oder eine “Gimmick Figure” wieder bringen.

Der Tänzer, sein Club und sein Caller bilden eine sehr wichtige Einheit. Als Clubmitglied wird der Caller vertrauter mit den anderen Clubmitgliedern, und sie mit ihm. Die Kommunikation wird viel einfacher, wenn der Club “einen festen” Caller hat. Als “fester Teil” eines Clubs, kann dieser Caller an Traditionen, an Jubiläen, Parties und anderen wichtigen Ereignissen den Club teilnehmen.

Fast immer ist ein fester Caller auch der Caller/Teacher für eine neue Klasse, die sein Club organisiert. Wenn diese Klasse dann graduiert ist, kann der Caller den Club-Level Viel einfacher an den der neu graduierten Tänzer anpassen, so dass die "Neuen" ohne Schwierigkeiten mitkommen, aber auch der Spass für die "Alten" nicht verloren geht. Wenn dies funktioniert, wird die Anzahl der Aussteiger gering bleiben.

Aus der Sicht einer Klasse kann ein Caller, der als einziger für diese Klasse verantwortlich ist, gleich von Anfang an die Stärken und Schwächen viel besser bestimmen, und helfen, wo es nötig ist. Wenn der Club dann noch "Angels" bereitstellt, hat der Caller die besten Voraussetzungen mit seinen Helfern erfolgreich für und mit den neuen Tänzer arbeiten zu können.

CLASS ANGELS

It is time to start thinking about our new classes this year and to start thinking of inviting the last graduating class to angel this class. I have some hints to pass on to these angels that I would like to share with you. I normally talk with my angels prior to the beginning of the open houses and pass on to them how I feel regarding their participation.

First of all, I encourage all of last years' "graduates" to return as an "Angel" this year. I tell them that even though they may not get to dance every "tip", they will become stronger dancers by being there and observing. The first important point that I stress is being there "on-time". I usually approach this by reminding them of the times during their class that they had to wait because there were not enough angels to allow everyone to dance.

The second point that I emphasize is that the class is there primarily for the new students and secondarily for the "angels"--students should not be allowed to sit out at the expense of the angels.

The next point that I bring out is that the "angels" should allow me to do the teaching. If, however, they discover a problem area that needs attention, they should wait until the end of the tip and tell me of the problem. If it needs immediate attention, they should raise their hand in the square and approach me when I recognize them.

My special “angels” (those who attend over 80% of the class as angels) are rewarded on graduation day with a special badge and appropriate recognition. In working with angels, keep the needs of the class in mind. I avoid calling a “tip” for the angels--this tends to place the spotlight on them, and not on the class.

Es ist wieder Zeit, an die diesjährige, neue Klasse zu denken, und auch daran, die letztes Jahr graduierten Klassenmitglieder als “Angels” dazu einzuladen. Ich habe einige Hinweise an diese Angels, die ich euch gerne weitergeben möchte. Ich spreche normalerweise vor Beginn der Open Houses mit ihnen darüber, wie ich mir ihre Teilnahme an der Klasse vorstelle.

Zuerst ermuntere ich alle “Graduierten” vom vergangenen Jahr, dieses Jahr als “Angels” zu kommen. Ich sage ihnen, dass sie - auch wenn sie nicht jeden Tip tanzen können - bessere Tänzer werden durch “Anwesenheit und Beobachten”. Der erste wichtige Punkt, den ich herausheben möchte, ist “Pünktlichkeit”. Ich erinnere sie dann an ihre “Klassen-Zeit”, wenn sie warten mussten, weil nicht genügend Angels da waren, so dass jeder tanzen konnte.

Der zweite wichtige Punkt: in der Klasse sind die Students der Mittelpunkt, und dann kommen die Angels. Es sollte kein Student draussen sitzen müssen zugunsten eines Angels.

Der nächste Punkt, den ich vorbringe ist, dass die Angels das Teachen mir überlassen sollten. Falls sie jedoch über ein Problem diskutieren wollen, das Beachtung verdient sollten sie damit bis zum Ende des Tips warten, und mich dann informieren. Wenn es jedoch sofortige Beachtung erfordert sollten sie die Hand heben, um meine Aufmerksamkeit zu erregen.

Meine “speziellen Angels” (diejenigen, die mehr als 80% der Klasse als Angels besucht haben) werden bei der Graduation mit einem extra-Badge ausgezeichnet und entsprechend für ihre Arbeit mit der Klasse gewürdigt. Ich vermeide, “Angel-Tips” zu callen; dies richtet das Augenmerk auf sie und nicht auf die Klasse.

This brings to an end our October issue.....don't forget to renew your subscription if you wish to remain on our mailing list, Rudi and I will not be sending the January issue to anyone who has not pre-paid for the notes, we have absorbed enough phone calls and additional postings ourselves all in an attempt to keep you as part of our family, and find this additional expense unfair.

VIEWPOINT: MORE ON MOTIVATION

MAINSTREAM: CENTERS IN--COMPRESS TO A COLUMN PLUS: LOAD THE BOAT

MORE ON MOTIVATION:

Any person who wants to achieve permanent, sustaining success knows he must acquire vast reserves of inner strength, determination and desire. He must have the ability to motivate himself. He must develop motivation because a man cannot hope to motivate others unless he is, himself, motivated.

Motivation begins with developing personal courage, enthusiasm, confidence and belief. Supported by positive attitudes toward his own abilities, the individual is motivated to create, to produce and to achieve. He sets an example of motivation that is the first step toward motivating others.

Motivation is exactly what the word means: the ability to motivate yourself to accomplishment. Motivating means the development of inner strength, willpower, overwhelming desire and the determination to reach any goal you wish.

No matter who you are or what your age may be, if you want to achieve permanent sustaining success, the motivation that will drive you toward that goal must come from within. It must be personal, deep rooted and a part of your innermost thoughts. All other motivation, the excitement of a crowd, the stimulation of a pep talk, the exhilaration of a passing circumstance is external and temporary. It will not last.

The word "motivation" first began to be commonly used in England and America in the 1880's. In the early days, motivation meant a moving force. Motivation was a desire. Motivation was a function in human behavior. It was the prime mover of human activity. It was in the 1930's that motivation gained acceptance as a fundamental concept. Since that time writers and leaders have viewed motivation as a major subdivision of knowledge of the mind. In the 1960's motivation meant drive and goal direction. Positive motivation brought pleasure. Negative motivation brought pain.

How does this all apply to calling? Just recently, I was calling a dance and everything seemed to be going downhill. I said to myself, "Man, this crowd's not getting with it tonight". Then I went in the rest room, looked in the mirror and I found out who wasn't getting with it. I walked back on the stage with a different attitude and the dance changed. My attitude changed. The dance got better. The dancers danced better and had more fun.

MOTIVATION=Antriebskraft

Jeder, der andauernden Erfolg erreichen will, weiss, dass er beträchtliche Willenskraft, Entschlossenheit und Verlangen aufbringen muss. Er muss sich selbst ansponnen können, er muss Antriebskraft entwickeln können, denn man kann nicht von anderen Motivation erwarten, wenn man selbst nicht motiviert ist.

Motivation beginnt mit der Entwicklung von Selbstbewusstsein, Enthusiasmus, Vertrauen und Glauben. Unterstützt durch positive Einstellung zu seinen eigenen Fähigkeiten kann jeder ideenreich, produktiv und erfolgreich sein. Er muss Vorbild sein, dies ist der erste Schritt, andere zu motivieren.

Motivation ist genau das, was das Wort bedeutet, die Fähigkeit, sich selbst anzusponnen, etwas erfolgreich erledigen zu können. Motivation bedeutet, Willenskraft zu entwickeln, übergrosses Verlangen und die Entschlossenheit, jedes von dir gesetzte Ziel auch zu erreichen.

Ganz egal, wer oder wie alt du bist, wenn du andauernden Erfolg anstrebst, muss die Kraft, die dich zu diesem Ziel treibt, aus dir selbst kommen. Es muss ganz persönlich, tief verwurzelt und ein Teil deiner Gedanken sein. Alle anderen "Triebfedern", das Erfolgserlebnis vor Publikum, die Anregung aus einem begeisternden Gespräch, die Ermunterung durch die momentanen Umstände sind äusserlich und temporär. Sie dauern nicht an.

Der Begriff "Motivation" wurde zuerst um 1880 in England und USA gebraucht. In diesen Tagen bedeutete Motivation eine vorantreibende Kraft. Motivation war ein Begehren. Motivation war eine Funktion im Verhalten. Es war die grösste Antriebskraft der menschlichen Aktivitäten. Es war um 1930, als "Motivation" Anerkennung gewann als grundsätzliches Konzept. Seit dieser Zeit betrachteten Schriftsteller und Anführer Motivation als eine hauptsächliche Untergruppe des Wissens über das menschliche Gehirn. In den 60ern bedeutete Motivation Weiterkommen und Zielstrebigkeit. Positiv Motivation brachte Vergnügen. Negative Motivation brachte Unbehagen.

Was hat dies alles mit dem Callen zu tun? Kürzlich callte ich einen Tanz und alles ging ziemlich daneben. "Menschenskinder, diese Gruppe hat's heute nicht drauf. Als ich auf die Toilette ging und in den Spiegel schaute, wusste ich, warum es nicht klappte. Ich ging zurück auf die Bühne mit einer ganz anderen Einstellung und die Veranstaltung veränderte sich. Mein Verhalten änderte sich. Das Tanzen wurde besser. Die Tänzer wurden besser und hatten mehr Spass.

VIEWPOINT: VARIOUS

PLUS: INDEX FOR 2000

This issue brings to an end another year of notes for your use. I have a couple of things I would like to pass on, first of all, please note a new address change for me, along with a new phone number and fax number. I moved in September and have the new address/phone number as of 1 December. I also can be reached thru the old telephone number until the first of the year....I will terminate that number then.

I also would like to take this opportunity on behalf of Uschi and Rudi Pohl, and my better half, Sabine Keil, and wish each and every one of you a very MERRY CHRISTMAS and the most PROSPEROUS OF NEW YEARS.

Unlike prior years, you will not be receiving the January, 2001 issue of our notes unless you have paid for your subscription. In the past, we have expended countless hours on the phone and enormous expense sending notices in the mail and feel that if you want the notes you should buy them, we should not have to extend reminders for 5-6 months, this all takes time and money, and is unfair.
